

Who is the course for?

- All employees without leadership and management responsibility for health and safety

Course objectives

- Help you to identify the risks to your health, safety and wellbeing
- Learn how to manage and reduce the risks to your health, safety and wellbeing
- Reduce your risk of being injured or killed at work

Features

- Based on over thirty years' experience in management and compliance training
- Based on over twenty years' experience in online and blended education
- Lots of planning templates and practical examples
- Cloud based software as service delivery to wide range of platforms

Who are we?

AGLC have been trading for 10 years. We supply learning solutions to a wide range of organisations from local small companies to UK Dept of BEIS, Universities and the World Bank amongst other global agencies, and our collaborators include academics and regulatory experts

This online learning is designed to show you to maintain and improve your health safety and well-being at work.

It is designed to help you create a better place for to work.

Although health and safety is a management responsibility, all staff can make a major contribution, and by inaction or doing the wrong thing put themselves and colleagues at risk

Content

1. The legal framework

- The Health and Safety at Work Act 1974
- Your employers obligations

2. Putting in place the foundations of health and safety

- How your employer can show leadership in health and safety
- Your capability to stay safe
- The importance of controls and measurement in health and safety

3. Providing a safe environment

- The impact of the work environment on your health and well-being
- Ensuring you are able to work in a safe environment
- The importance of effective maintenance
- Ensuring that all hazardous substances are stored and used safely

4. Keeping people safe

- Displaying safety information
- Engaging with you and your colleagues
- Managing emergencies
- Preventing safety incidents

5. Managing risks

- Managing the specific risks associated with:
 - Information technology
 - Fire
 - Manual handling
 - Working at height
 - Slips and trips
 - Machinery and equipment
 - Business specific hazards
 - Mental health
 - Physical health